Cookie Policy

We use cookies (small text files) to ensure the proper functioning of the website and enhance the browsing experience. These cookies are stored on the user's computer from a server. More than 90% of websites use cookies, and according to European Union regulations, they are required to obtain the user's consent. By using the website, the user agrees to the use of cookies. The user can still use the website if cookies are not permitted, but certain features may not be available.

What is a cookie? A cookie is a small text file that is downloaded to the user's computer when visiting a website. Cookies make it easier to use the website: they save the user's settings (e.g., name, address) and activate them when the user revisits the site.

Cookies may also store large amounts of personal data (e.g., name, email address), but user consent is required for this. The user can choose not to allow cookies, but in this case, certain features may not be available.

Types of Cookies

- 1. Session Cookies
These are temporary cookies that are deleted from the computer when the browser used for internet browsing is closed.
- 2. Persistent Cookies
These remain on the user's computer after closing the browser. These cookies allow websites to store data for the user's future visits.
- 3. First-party Cookies
These cookies come from the website the user is visiting and help facilitate navigation on the site.
- 4. Third-party Cookies
These cookies are placed by third-party service providers, such as advertisers or analytical tools.

Does this website use cookies? Yes, this website uses cookies to provide a better user experience.

What cookies does the website use?

- Session Cookies: Automatically deleted when the browser is closed.
- Persistent Cookies: Stay in the browser until the user deletes them.
- Third-party Cookies on this website:
This website may use external service providers who may store limited cookies.

Web Analytics:

The website uses Google Analytics. The user can prevent cookies from being stored on their device through the following link: Google Analytics Opt-out.

How to disable cookies? The user can manage cookies in their browser settings and can delete them at any time.

Data Protection Incident

If any unauthorized person gains access to the personal data we handle, or if any other data protection incident occurs (e.g., unlawful destruction, loss, alteration), or if there is a suspicion of such an incident, we will report it to the competent supervisory authority without undue delay and, if possible, within 72 hours, in accordance with the GDPR provisions, terms, and conditions.

Upon becoming aware of the data protection incident, we will immediately take the necessary security measures to eliminate and restore the damage caused by the incident.

If the data protection incident is likely to pose a high risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons, we will inform the data subject about the incident without undue delay.

Image and Sound Recordings

On the Museum's premises, Guests are allowed to take still and moving images, as well as sound recordings. In doing so, it is the responsibility and duty of each visitor to respect the personal rights of other visitors and avoid unnecessary disturbances.

Guests are allowed to record and publicly share images featuring the Museum's logo for their personal use.

By entering the Museum premises, Guests acknowledge that, due to the nature and operation of the Museum, public events and mass gatherings are held, during which still and moving images, as well as sound recordings, may be made. In these cases, no additional consent is required from the individuals involved for the creation, publication, or use of such recordings.

Event Organization

The Museum offers the possibility of organizing events. For detailed information and terms, please contact our staff!

We will provide a written offer for the event, and the acceptance of the offer in writing within the specified deadline, as well as the payment of a deposit, are required for the event to take place.

The GTC (General Terms and Conditions) apply to all participants in the event. Ensuring compliance with the GTC among event participants is the responsibility of the event organizer (the customer). In the case of organizing children's parties, the organizer is required to ensure compliance with the GTC by the children and ensure the presence of a sufficient number of adult chaperones.

Other Provisions

For data processing not listed in this notice, we will provide information at the time the data is collected.

We inform our customers that, based on the authorization of a legal regulation, courts, prosecutors, law enforcement authorities, authorities handling administrative offenses, public authorities, the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, the Hungarian National Bank, or other bodies may request information, data disclosure, or document provision from the data controller.

The data controller will only release personal data to the authorities to the extent and in the manner necessary to achieve the purpose of the request, provided that the authority has specified the exact purpose and the scope of the data.
